

It's a Tuff Job!

delivered by Sally Wright, author of "50 fantastic ideas for tuff trays"

Inspiration and an understanding of the benefits and possibilities associated with 'Tuff Tray Play'!

Saturday March 30th, 2019 – 9.30am to 12.30pm
Venue TBC – City of Salford
£35 per person

In this training Sally will...

- Talk through her own reflections surrounding the importance of incorporating 'Tuff Tray Play' into your setting and the impact it can have on staff and children.
- Together we will look at how planning and team work can impact the effectiveness of tuff tray play and discuss the challenges we may face.
- We will talk about the benefits of sensory play and how we can 'Embrace the mess' to support this.
- We will discuss the rationale behind using Tuff Tray activities and explore how we can follow the children's interest, incorporate learning outcomes AND support PLAY.
- We will discuss what our role involves for supporting Tuff Tray PLAY as 'Facilitators, observers and scaffolders'.
- Sally will also share a selection of ideas and activities for inspiration.

Workshop...

In our interactive workshop you will have the opportunity to explore different resources and ideas, work as a team to create your own tuff tray activity and be challenged to think 'outside of the box'. You will also have the opportunity to ask any questions and get support from Sally and her team!

Places are limited so please book early to avoid disappointment.
